WITHDRAWALS AND REFUNDS: In accordance with University and CCHE policy, if you drop from this class after the course starts you will be assessed a drop fee. You are legally responsible for payment of full tuition once your teacher turns in registration forms AFTER December 6th, 2011. In order to be eligible to receive any refund of tuition, you must contact the Office of Extended Studies at 1-800-232-1749 to formally withdraw from your class. Failure to notify us will result in UNC tuition being owed even though student did not attend or complete the coursework.

GRADUATE RATIONALE: This course is offered in conjunction with the Michigan Thespian annual conference. The content is described above. Most participants in these workshops are currently certified or licensed teachers who practice in a core discipline in K-12 school systems. Individuals seeking graduate credit must have completed an undergraduate curriculum.

Sessions will provide an opportunity for teachers to improve various artistic skills, become better acquainted with the theatre activities in the country, and experience networking with colleagues at all levels of theatre education.

Participants will experience a hands-on workshop in numerous areas of theatre. They will be responsible for processing and synthesizing new information pertaining to their own areas of interest and expertise, and respond with a written analysis on what they have learned and how they intend to apply the new information to their theatre program.

Honor Code

All members of the University of Northern Colorado community are entrusted with the responsibility to uphold and promote five fundamental values: Honesty, Trust, Respect, Fairness, and Responsibility. These core elements foster an atmosphere, inside and outside of the classroom, which serves as a foundation and guides the UNC community's academic, professional, and personal growth. Endorsement of these core elements by students, faculty, staff, administration, and trustees strengthens the integrity and value of our academic climate.

UNC's Policies

UNC's policies and recommendations for academic misconduct will be followed.
